

allows the client applications to: 1. fetch the registry information from the eureka server